Guides

As Asia-Pacific's fluid enforcement landscape continues to evolve, competition law compliance has become ever more business critical for both major sector players and SMEs alike.

Compiled by the network of Herbert Smith Freehills competition specialists in Asia and Australia, the Asia-Pacific Competition Law Guide 2020 provides an overview of the competition law regimes in key Asia-Pacific jurisdictions. It also provides jurisdiction-specific information on both behavioural competition law and merger control.

Since the last edition of this regional guide, there have been a number of substantial changes and policy developments across the region. It is an essential handbook for anyone operating or investing in the region.
