PROCUREMENT BANS AND SELF-CLEANING

Given the CNMC's recent bans on companies from tendering for contracts with the public authorities when they have been taken part in consortiums or other arrangements with a view to distributing public contracts, Henar Gonzalez, head of the Herbert Smith Freehills competition group in Madrid, analyses the self-cleaning measures that companies should implement to prevent being excluded from public procurement processes.

If you have any questions, or would like to know how this might affect your business, phone, or email these key contacts.
